Individual FRQ Reflection

In this activity, students will improve their ability to express their thoughts effectively and develop the necessary skills to excel in answering free-response questions.

Step 1: Assign an Free Response Question to your students and decide when you would like students to see the sample response and rubric:

a. After each question: Perfect if you are only assigning one FRQ.
b. After assignment completion: Great if you are giving multiple FRQs or if the FRQ is part of a larger assignment .
c. After the due date has passed: Useful to combat answer sharing among students and classes.

Step 2: Once students have submitted their FRQ, provide the worksheet below.

Reflection & Revision Worksheet

Pro-tip: Students can complete both steps within one class period or across multiple days.